

Step 2: Learn aACE Basics

Last Modified on 03/04/2022 11:31 am EST

The fastest way to learn aACE is by working in the system. As you progress through the discovery process, you will work in a live, web-based version of aACE. For an example of how the basic features of aACE help your team learn, read our feature highlight

Testing Your Understanding

As you begin to learn how to work with aACE, you can test your mastery and learn additional time-saving features by taking the aACE Basics Learning Module (<http://www.aacesoft.com/learning>).

This learning module links you to a webinar that reviews the basic system functionality. After you watch the webinar, you can answer four sections of questions that help you consolidate your understanding. These questions are designed as prompts for you to work in your Discovery system and see the results of various activities. In other words, the learning module is an open-book quiz and your aACE system holds the answers.
